We produce beautiful, high-quality pieces that you will love—pieces that will help transform and elevate your home or office into a space that is uniquely “you.”

Our Clients

At Smith Farms, we work with a variety of clients, including:

Discerning homeowners who want high-quality, one-of-a-kind pieces for their homes.

Business owners looking for statement pieces to help elevate their offices, conference rooms, and lobbies.

Interior designers and architects looking for unique pieces to complete their designs and meet the needs of their high-end clients.

Anyone who prefers quality, USA-made pieces over mass-produced furniture from overseas.

Owner and Craftsman

Matt Smith is the owner of Smith Farms. He is a skilled craftsman with years of experience designing and crafting custom furniture and décor pieces. He lives on a small farm in Menifee, California with his wife Leslie, their two children, their dog, and several chickens. When he's not in the woodshop, he enjoys spending time with his family, working in the vineyard, gardening, playing chess, and eating at In-N-Out.

How To Buy

Custom Commissions

As a custom furniture company, most of our projects are custom commissions. We take your ideas and turn them into a one-of-a-kind piece of furniture. Everything, including the style, the details, the size, the wood type, and the finish can be unique to that piece! This option is great for our clients with a strong sense of their own style who want furniture in their home or office that perfectly matches their aesthetic, includes all the details they want, and is made to last.

Made-to-Order Pieces from our Established Collection

Smith Farms also offers made-to-order pieces based on our established collection. If you see a design you like, we can tailor it to fit your specific space. The piece is built just for you, so you can choose the exact dimensions, wood species, and finish that works for you.

Ready-to-Purchase Items

We occasionally have pieces in stock, ready for you to purchase today. These items are made with the same attention to detail and quality craftsmanship that we use when building commissioned pieces. We generally keep only a limited inventory in stock, so if you see something in that you like, don't wait, or it could be gone tomorrow!

What to Expect

We work hard to provide every client with a superb experience! We start by discussing the type of piece you want to have built. We'll go over general ideas and provide you with a timeline and budget range. If you decide to move forward with us, we'll work with you to produce a detailed design. Then, once we arrive at a design, we'll provide you with the exact cost and begin building.

Many of our clients really don't know exactly what they want coming in, and they appreciate our collaborative approach where we discuss things like style, size, wood species, finish, and other details. We can offer helpful suggestions, based on our many years of experience in furniture design and construction, and combine them with your ideas. We do our best to make the process simple for our clients and keep things moving forward quickly.

Shipping and Delivery

We design and build custom furniture and functional art pieces in Southern California, but our pieces go all over the United States.

We have options for high-quality shipping, and if you're looking for the absolute best experience, we will hand deliver your pieces right to you and help with set up in your home or office.
